How can Maine PASA Connections help me?

Maine PASA Connections is a place where workers and employers can connect. This service is an online tool for employers looking for an assistant and for workers looking for employment. Maine PASA wants to increase the employment opportunities for people working in direct care/support while assisting those who use support services to live independently.

Maine PASA Connections also has Info Sheets on a variety of topics for both workers and employers:

- What's it like working as a personal assistant?
- What are consumer-directed services?
- Where can I find training as a personal assistant?
- Protecting Yourself on the Job
- Getting the Word Out About Your Personal Assistant Job
- Getting Off to a Good Start with Your Personal Assistant
- Your Responsibilities as an Employer
